Interscholastic Athletic and Extra-Curricular Activities Student Policy

Participation in interscholastic activities is a privilege for students. Interscholastic athletics and extra-curricular activities are voluntary programs. Because they are voluntary and because those participating represent the student body, it is mandatory that to qualify, the standards must be the highest. This is particularly true of academic requirements, school citizenship, and sportsmanship. The dignity of the school program is reflected through interscholastic athletics and extra-curricular activities. Those who take part must conduct themselves in a manner which is above question. It is important for each student to know his or her role being a Harry Miller student-athlete.

1. In order to participate on a Harry Miller Middle School team or in extra-curricular activities, students must fulfill their academic requirements and behavior expectations.

- Attendance of classes
- Course assignments completed
- Have a passing mark in all subjects
- Homework completed
- Proper conduct in class and throughout the school

2. The student must conduct him/herself in an appropriate manner, remembering that as a member of a school team or club, the student represents him/herself, the student body, the school and the district. Consequently, the student, as well as the coaches, parents and spectators are reminded that school rules apply in the following circumstances:

- the time before, during, and after games and practices while still on school property.
- the time traveling to and from games and practices when the team is traveling as a group, which includes transportation by bus, van, or school-approved drivers.
- the time before, between, and after games when athletes are under the care of coaches or supervisors in such places as restaurants, shopping malls, stores, or similar places of business or recreation.
- at all times (24 hours per day) when teams are on overnight trips or similar extended trips.

3. In the event that a student athlete is absent from school for more than half of the school day, they are ineligible to participate in a practice or game on that day.

4. In the event that a student athlete has received disciplinary action as a result of their behavior in school, it is up to the decision of the School Administration and the Athletic Director as to whether or not they will play particular games and or be removed from the team.

5. There is no guarantee that all players/participants will receive equal playing time or positions of responsibility. The coach/supervisor will consider the participant's ability as well as his/her individual role with respect to the overall performance of the group's goals.
